DEMONSTRATIVE EXHIBITS AS TO ALL	)

Frequently large demonstrative exhibits are marked as exhibits during a hearing or trial but the exhibits are purely illustrative in nature. Although the exhibits are not admitted into evidence, the Clerk of Superior Court is responsible for retaining and storing these demonstrative exhibits until the pending matter has been finalized. It creates a problem for the Clerk of Superior Court to continue to store demonstrative Exhibits that are not necessary for review and that are not necessary for any judgment, post judgment or appellate proceedings.

Subject to the Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure regarding admitted exhibits and their disposal or release of admitted exhibits, the following procedure is established to permit the release, duplication or disposal of large demonstrative exhibits in order to reduce or avoid storage of the demonstrative exhibits that have no further value in a case.
