Hi All,

Please let me know ASAP as to which precinct you live in if you would like to be a precinct committeeman within The Yuma County Libertarian Party.

We have to let the Yuma County Board of Supervisors know so they can appoint those who wish to be a precinct committeeman at their next meeting in a couple of weeks.

A precinct committeeman does not do really much of anything except being able to elect from the precinct committeemen of the YCLP to sit as a voting member of the State Libertarian party. The more precinct committeemen the YCLP has, the more representation the YCLP will have at the state party level.

A county party gets to have 1 voting member at the state level for every 3 county precinct committeemen. Committeeman(men) does not mean only men!!! It is a generic term.

Let me know. You do have to be registered to vote as a Libertarian.

Thanks.

Howard
